What the Tories Did For Labor When in Power

Hon. R. B. Bennett, leader of the Conservative party, stated at Moncton that he gladly accepted the challenge of Mr. King to state what the Conservative party had done for labor. He summarized the acts of his party for the benefit of Canadian labor as follows:—

It has made trade unions legal.

It granted a million dollars a year for technical education to aid workers. It granted $1,000,000 a year for agricultural education.

It established a fund of $25,000,000 for the building of moderately priced homes for workers.

It established nation wide employment bureaus.

It took a cabinet minister from the trade unions.

It first gave consideration to old age pensions, and at the same time urged investigation of unemployment and sickness insurance.

It bound Canada to the eight hour day and the six day working week at the Peace Conference at Versailles.

It made available over $1,800,000 for relief during 1920-21 unemployment crisis.

It gave $20,000,000 for highways construction.

These said Mr. Bennett were some of the things his party had done for labor. "But," he proceeded, "you are more interested to know what it is going to do now. It is going to work for all who are willing to work, or perish in the attempt. It is going to call parliament at the earliest possible date after July 28 and take such steps as will end this tragic condition of unemployment and bring prosperity to the country as a whole."

BAXTER AT HAZELTON

J. S. Baxter of Vancouver addressed a public meeting in Hazelton on Monday evening. R. S. Sargent occupied the chair. The attendance at the meeting was not as large as usual owing to short notice. There does not seem to be the same attraction when outside speakers are around. The public seems to be more interested in what the candidates have to say than what outsiders say, unless the speaker be one of the outstanding politicians. In Skeena riding the Conservatives have as a candidate J. C. Brady, one of the best speakers in the House at Ottawa, and it takes a real good man to draw the people after Mr. Brady has been heard.

Mr. Baxter is making a tour of the district in the interests of the Conservative party. Tuesday evening he spoke at Evelyn.

NEW CHIEF ELECTED

Last Saturday at Moxicetown a new chief for that tribe was elected to succeed Mooskin Johnny who died last spring. Some two hundred natives were present for the ceremony, and Father Cocola and Father Godfrey also were present. There were four of the natives seeking election, but Tye David won out by a big majority. He is a well known Indian throughout the northern interior and he will doubtless have the unanimous support of the tribe. Following the election of the new chief there was a potlatch. A number from this part of the district took part in both ceremonies.

It costs little to have ears pierced. Any jazz band will do it for nothing.

WORKING AT HOSPITAL

Actual construction work on the hospital was started on July 7th and on the 12th the concrete was run for the foundations. On Monday of this week the foundations were completed, and the joice were laid for the first floor. Progress is very satisfactory. Thus far three cars of lumber and 2 of cement have been received and an average of fifteen men have been on job. By the end of the week the new building will have begun to take shape.

SPAIN PROHIBITS WHEAT FROM CANADA

Spain has reestablished Article 1 of the law of July 10, 1922 with the result that the importation of wheat and flour into that country is now prohibited. The prohibition also takes in the Balearic Island. This prohibition of wheat shall be in force until the price of wheat shall have exceeded approximately $1.73 per bushel for at least one month, and is an attempt to protect the domestic farmer who has suffered from outside competition. Exports of Canadian wheat have been dropping steadily for the last few years as is shown by the trade reports as issued by the Bureau of Statistics. In 1928 Canada exported to Spain 2,611,478 bushels of wheat at a value of $3,575,181; in 1929 this dropped to 536,748 bushels valued at $688,298. The new decree will have a still further deleterious effect on Canada's exports.

MOVING INDIAN GRAVES

One of the very old Indian burying grounds in the north is located at Hagwilget and on the road to the high level bridge. When the first bridge was built on a high level some of the graves were moved as the road was to go along side the burying place. Now that the road is being widened and straightened arrangements have been made with the Indians to remove the rest of graves. This work was in progress for some days and during that time some forty odd graves were encountered. There may be more yet. Every skull is counted as a body and these are moved up to the new burying grounds back of the church and to the south. It is quite impossible to estimate the number of Indians that were buried there because there is no record in existence. For some sixty years since the Indian Agency for this district was established there has been no record of any burial at that old ground.

FLOWER SHOW AUG. 21

There was a meeting of the Hazelton Horticultural Society on Tuesday evening but owing to a small turnout it was decided to transact no business but to call a general meeting for next Monday night, July 21, in the old post office building at 8.30 sharp. All interested are requested to be present. The executive committee has decided that the annual flower show shall be held on Aug. 21st, and the meeting on Monday night will be largely to make arrangements for that.

ONLY TWO NOMINATED

Nominations for the federal election were held in Prince Rupert last Monday and as was expected only two names were submitted. J. O. Brady to represent the Conservative party and Olof Hanson to represent the Liberal party. Mr. Brady was elected last time over Fred Stork with a majority of over 320.

Greatest Bridge On Continent For Hagwilget

Engineer Smith of the provincial department of public works, arrived on Saturday night to take charge of the construction of the new high level bridge at Hagwilget. He came from the Columbia river country where he was doing some advance location work for the department. Mr. Smith is an engineer of wide experience both in B. C. and on the prairie. He will have his office and living quarters along side the main camp and will be always available for the job. He will be the engineer in charge and will be here for about six months. The new bridge will be one of the great attractions of the north. First it will be a most efficient bridge, strong and everlasting. It will be a beautiful bridge, every refinement known to science is being added. These features set in such scenic beauty will make this structure something worth going far to see.

Work is progressing nicely. There has been, and still is, a lot of preparatory work, such as approaches, roads, foundations, anchor holes, etc., before actual construction can start. The erection of the camp alone is quite a job and when done it will be comfortable and as near up to date as possible. It will have its own waterworks and electric light, baths and showers.

On the New Hazelton side of the river the road is being straightened out and the grade reduced. This requires a great fill and for the past week or two this has been in progress and will require another week to finish. Then the old bridge will be put in a safe condition for use in constructing the new bridge. When all these things have been done the concrete work and actual bridge work go forward at a rapid rate.

ALBINO WHALE SIGHTED

A white whale, declared to be rare among the denizens of the sea, was sighted off the New Foundland Banks recently. It was swimming in company with a black one. A white whale is very rarely seen, according to experts on the subject.

Miss Edith Bulwer of the hospital nursing staff was a guest a couple of days this week of Mrs. John Rukin. Before her holidays are over she will also visit in Smithers and Woodcock.

Arthur Irvine, night operator at the Dominion Telegraph office, is on his vacation. He left this morning by motor for Stuart Lake and then to Vancouver. Later he will motor over the hills to Saskatchewan. He is being relieved by Carl Halliday, an old boy Hazelton who recently blew in from Minneapolis where he has been working for some time.

The annual meeting of the school in New Hazelton was held on Saturday night last when F. A. Goddard was elected to the board to succeed Peter Smith whose term had expired and whose work keeps him out of town practically all the time. General school business was discussed.

The saw mill at Smithers was burned to the ground last Friday night. A watchman was on the job but he failed to notice the fire until too late. The blaze was due to the very warm dry weather for a day or two and a spare from the furnace.

PREMIER KING ON RUN

Ottawa, July 14—Special to the Herald—The definite shape given to the political horizon by the initial efforts of the party campaigners will not again alter before the election. Unless some last minute and unforeseen issue develops the country will go to the polls to decide questions that have already been thoroughly oriented by the Big Guns of both sides. The reactions of the country to the speeches of the Hon. R. B. Bennett and the Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King have not been such as to justify the optimism with which the Liberal forces opened the campaign. It is admitted. The Liberal party seems to be on the run. It is certainly a fact that the Government finds itself with a much harder fight on its hands than it anticipated when it announced the election date.

The sudden shiftings of the Premier's attitude towards the question of unemployment is taken here to mean that the Government was caught napping. It is evident that when Mr. King began his speaking tour he did not realize how seriously the Canadian people regarded the unemployment situation.

It shortly became apparent, however, that the attempts of the Government during the past session of parliament to obscure the truth of the matter had failed.

Having consistently cried that the unemployment problem was of minor proportions the Prime Minister discovers the people hooting at his effort to minimize their plight. Thus his hurried and last minute presentation of an "unemployment" program in face of his earlier statements that there was no necessity for such a step.

Undoubtedly, from the point of view of the Conservative party there could be no more auspicious time for an election than the present.

The irritation of the east with the recent revisions to the United States tariff, the undoubted decline of the trade generally and the dissatisfaction of the West with the wheat situation and general agricultural conditions, all combine to And the ably directed Conservative forces are taking full advantage of the crumbling.

The Conservative campaign has so far been conducted with the most admirable strategy and every use has been made of Liberal blunders. The frenzied efforts of the Government key men of right themselves in the eyes of the country after their somewhat dubious behavior regarding old age pensions, unemployment and tariff would indicate that fear stalks freely through the Liberal ranks.

That the Government is beginning to clutch at straws became evident when the Soldier's Pension question was dragged into the arena in violation of the pact subscribed to by the three parties that this matter would be kept out of politics.

And witness Mr. King's statement in Quebec that he might long ago have done something to remedy unemployment had he been asked to do so by the provinces followed by the declaration of Premier Brownlee of Alberta that the King ministry had most emphatically been asked to co-operate in unemployment relief measures.

Though Liberalism sits in the saddle it has obviously lost control of the situation. The Government record is under fire and has even at this comparatively early date been thoroughly riddled.

Excursionists From the East Stop Half Hour

Professors in universities, clergymen of rural and city pastorates, experts in the medical profession, learned men of the legal world, successful financiers, nurses of hospitals, teachers in schools, farmers who made agriculture pay, with elect ladies who adorn the social and church life of the east among the distinguished guests who visited Hazelton for a brief half hour stopover on the C. N. R. last Friday evening in connection with the "Peace River Special" personally conducted by Rev. Dr. S. W. Fallis, of the United Church Publishing House, Toronto.

The guests numbered about 200 of which 90 per cent. had never been west of the Rockies. About 9.30 p. m. the special train pulled into Hazelton where volunteer autos met the visitors and conveyed as many as possible to the new hospital, now in process of erection.

They were unstinted in their praise of what they had seen and ran out of adjectives to describe the scenic beauty of British Columbia with its fords and fisheries, mines and minerals. They applied to Rev. Dr. E. B. Lanceley of Toronto for a new list in order that they might fittingly describe the great wonderland.

Drs. H. C. and L. B. Winch were on hand and described the new hospital. Miss Dorothy Fallis, daughter of the conductor of the party was presented with a large and beautiful bouquet of flowers by Rev. T. H. Wright, B. A., pastor of the United Church of the Hazeltons. All of the ladies admired the flowers and considered them wonderful.

Owing to the limited time it was not possible to convey the whole party to and from the hospital. Those remaining at the depot were entertained in conversation by some of the leading citizens of the town. The visitors were pleased with the description given of the natural beauty of the locality and a special interest was aroused when a reference was made to Roch de Bonle with all its majesty and its snow-capped peaks. This beauty cannot be fully described as its beauty is unsurpassed on the American continent.

The officials of the railway who included Mr. Clay, assistant superintendent at Smithers, and W. Gow, the local agent, were unfailing in their courtesy and attention in looking after the interests of the visiting guests.

Among some of the noted guests on the trip were:—Dr. S. W. Fallis and Miss Dorothy Fallis of Toronto; Rev. Dr. E. B. Lanceley, Toronto; Rev. W. McMullen, famous religious and press writer of the church periodicals, Toronto; W. A. Hodgins, Shawville, Que.; Thomas Hilliard, Waterloo, Ont. Mr. and Mrs. O. Hazzlewood, Toronto.

The annual strawberry social of St. Peter's W. A. will be held on Saturday next, July 19, on the rectory lawn from 5 to 8 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. John Genson spent a couple of days in town with Mrs. Carl Poulson.

RAW FOOD FOR HEALTH

If you want to enjoy really good health, you must eat food that has not been cooked. This was the advice given by Sir Bruce Porter in an address recently. "There is only one vegetable you can cook without destroying the vitamins" said Sir Bruce, "and that is cabbage."

"Teach the children to spend their pennies on apples rather than sweets, but don't tell them to eat apples because they are good for them. And if it is a question as to whether father has butter or margarine give him the margarine and let the child have the butter."

ONLY FEW DAYS LEFT

Polling day is not far off—one week from next Monday. Every Canadian who has a vote is expected to cast it on that day. The election means the future of Canada, whether it shall be a continuation of the tough times we have had for the past few years, with the bulk of our money going to foreign countries, or whether a new party shall be elected to power at Ottawa, with a change of policy that will keep our money at home, convert our natural resources into the finished product in Canada and thus provide a great home market for all produce.

The great question seems to be Hon. Mr. Bennett's policy of building up Canada, abolishing unemployment and creating a home market, or of raising families, educating them and sending them to the United States to manufacture our raw materials in a foreign country, as has been followed by the Liberal government under Hon. Mr. King.

During the past few weeks Mr. J. C. Brady, the Conservative candidate, has visited practically every part of the riding and personally told the voters what he stands for. We know his policies. Thus far since the campaign opened the Liberal candidate has not committed himself to anything from the public platform or any other way. He has not made a speech, so far as can be learned, and apparently his managers will not let him on the platform—he will thus be committed to nothing.

In the one speech we heard the Liberal candidate make, something like a year ago he stated that he did not want the job, he did not like the work and he did not need the money.

To send a man to Ottawa feeling as said he did towards the job, would be anything but wise on the part of the people of Skeena. This country needs a man at Ottawa who wants the job because he likes the work and is prepared to study the requirements of the district and who can advocate them on the floor of the house or in the minister's office. Such a man is J. C. Brady who met with such success in the last House. His success was not due to the willingness of the government, but it was due to the fact that he knew what he was talking about and he forced the government to understand him and to understand the needs of the district.

Premier MacKenzie King did keep one of the many solemn promises he made previous to the last general election, viz., the reform of the senate. He has been all these years doing it, but just before going to the country he appointed enough lame horses out of the Liberal ranks to fill the vacancies caused by Tory deaths. Thus he has a Liberal majority in the senate and the senate has been Reformed.

"Brady's Blather" seems to annoy the political writers on Liberal papers in the north. Brady's blather is also very much of an annoyance to the Premier and his government at Ottawa, if that is any consolation to the aforesaid political writers.

It is easy to get campaign speakers. But should Mr. Hanson go to Ottawa who will he get to do his talking in the House?

A. M. Manson, M. L. A. for Omineca is going about the country side telling the people how much he hates the wicked Tories. In fact he hates everything except a Liberal and not very many of those. But then Alex has been doing that so long now that people would be disappointed were he to change his record.

Ask the laboring man about that "Great Friend of Labor" the Liberals have suddenly started talking about.

The Conservative Provincial government at Victoria is doing everything possible to relieve the unemployment situation in this province, but the Liberal government at Ottawa refused to give a five cent piece towards that relief. In fact Hon. MacKenzie King says there is no unemployment in the country and has not been. He says the country is prosperous. Can he get one like that across?

If you are prosperous where are you keeping your money? Perhaps Mr. MacKenzie King can tell you just where that pot of gold is.

Hon. Dr. King and A. M. Manson addressed a public meeting in Smithers Wednesday night on behalf of the Liberal party. They will make an attack on the Tories but will have little to hand to the public in the way of encouragement should the King government be returned to power. With the country so prosperous as it is and with the laboring men and the business men so prosperous as the Liberals claim they are, no change of policy is necessary, according to Liberals, except of course, countervailing duties that are a humbug, and British preference that gives no preference.
